2017
UIM Environmental Award
& Special Mentions

Going GREEN together

For the 8th edition, the UIM Environmental Award and Special Mentions allows the environmental leaders, whether individuals or organizations to showcase their most original initiatives and their most successful innovations in term of environmentally friendly technologies. All the candidacies, and not only those of the finalists and prize-winners, embody brilliantly the complete and multi-form face of a nautical industry in perpetual evolution in front of environmental challenges." Raffaele Chiulli, UIM President
